 - A letter or premium bill from your former insurance company that shows you or your dependent's cancellation/termination from health coverage.
 - A decertification letter from your insurance company stating when coverage will no longer be offered.
- A letter from an employer, on official letterhead or stationery, that confirms one of these about you or your spouse or dependent family member:
 - That your employer dropped or will drop your coverage or benefits.
 - That your employer stopped or will stop contributing to your cost of coverage.
 - That your employer changed or will change coverage or benefits, and your coverage will no longer be considered qualifying health coverage.
- A letter about COBRA coverage, like a letter from an employer or health insurance company that confirms these:
 - Your employer's offer of COBRA coverage along with the date this coverage would start.
 - Your COBRA coverage ended or will end, or your employer stopped or will stop contributing to the cost of coverage and when.
- A health care program document, on official letterhead or stationery, including:
 - A letter from a government health program, like TRICARE, Veterans Affairs (VA), Peace Corps, or Medicare, showing when coverage ended or will end.

- A letter from your state Medicaid or CHIP agency showing that your eligibility for Medicaid or CHIP was denied and when it was denied or that your Medicaid or CHIP coverage ended or will end.
 - A dated copy of your military discharge document (DD214).
- A letter if you lost student health coverage, which shows when the coverage ended or will end. This should be on official letterhead or stationery.
